

Presentation of Gender Summit 11
Embracing pluralism and thriving through diversity
November 6-8 2017

Maryse Lassonde, Scientific Director, Quebec Research Agency-
Nature and Technologies,
President, Royal Society of Canada

Serge Villemure, Director, Scholarships, Fellowships & Chairs for Women in Science and Engineering

May 26th, 2017, Tokyo, Japan

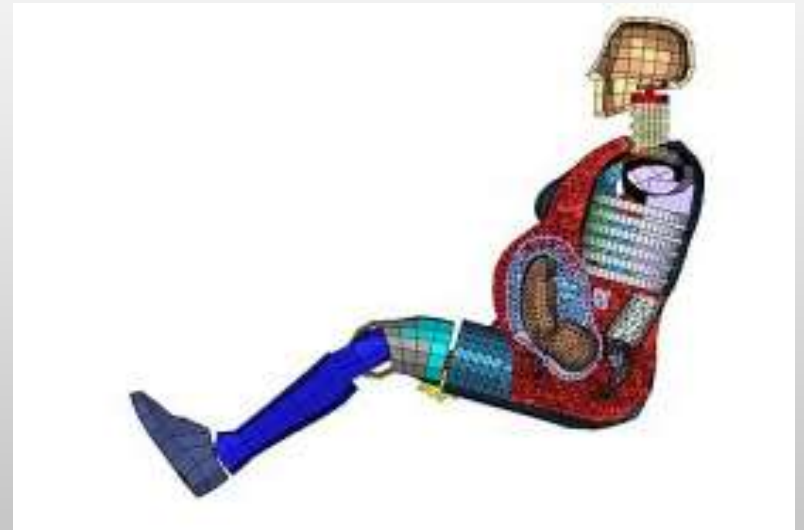

“I was taught that the way of progress was neither swift nor easy.”

Marie Curie, physicist & chemist; winner of the 1903 Nobel Prize in Physics and the 1911 Nobel Prize in Chemistry

The Way Ahead

- Promote a holistic approach focused on SGBA+
- Continue to advance research and convey evidence

- Absence of pregnant crash test dummies: motor vehicle crashes are leading cause of fetal death
 - Source: gendered innovations

"Because it's 2015!"

Justin Trudeau

Gender Summit 11 - Plenary sessions

#1– Societal Commitments towards the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer and Two-Spirited (LGBTQ2) Individuals

#2– Perspectives on Gender Equity and Diversity within the Industrial Sector

#3 – Concrete measures for structural change: Towards gender equality and diversity within academia

#4 Challenges and Realities faced by Indigenous Communities in Canada and Around the World

#5 Intersectionality

#6 – Diversity and Leadership

#7 How SGBA+ can Spark Innovation Locally and Globally

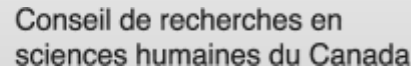

#8 – Synthesis of GS11 and the way forward

Gender Summit 11 - Other

- 3 blocks of 4 parallel sessions
- Key note addresses by Heads of states and Ministers
- Poster sessions with 3 prizes/day for students who are first authors
- Public discussion on the presence of women in science

Gender Summit®
2017
North America
Amérique du Nord

Gender Summit 11

Montreal, QC, Canada

November 6-8, 2017

For information:

gendersummit@nserc-crsng.gc.ca

gender_summit@frq.gc.ca