QUESTION 7 of 9

What happened, in your own words?

Include anything you are able to remember around what you felt, saw, heard, smelled, tasted, or anything you can't you forget about your experience.

Sexual assault and harassment

With the help of experts,
we are united in our desire to combat sexual assault and harassment
and support survivors.

Work With Us

Join us in helping create a world where sexual assault and harassment are rare and survivors are supported.

How Callisto Works

Callisto provides three distinct options for survivors of sexual assault.

Write

Record information about what happened securely and privately. It won't go anywhere if you don't want it to.

Match

Enter perpetrator information so we can identify repeat offenders within your school community.

Report

Report electronically to Pomona so they get your full account of what happened before you even walk in the door.

QUESTION 1 of 9

When did it happen?
If it has been less than 5 days, you may still be able to get a forensic exam (also known as a rape kit) to collect potential physical evidence. Learn more about the forensic exam

- Within the last 5 days
- This school year (since August)
- A previous school year
- Before I was a student here
- I'm not sure
- I'd rather not say
- Other

What is the exact date?
If you know the exact date please place it here.

QUESTION 3 of 9

You may have physical or electronic evidence.

If you choose to report what happened to your school or the police, they may ask you for electronic and/or physical evidence of what happened. If you don't have these things, it doesn't mean that what happened is any less real. Below is information on different types of evidence and how to preserve them in case you want or need it later.

Electronic Evidence

Emails
Photos/videos
Text messages
Screenshots
Social media interactions
(Twitter, Facebook, Snapchat, Instagram, etc.)

Physical Evidence

Clothing
Bedsheets
Condoms
Any evidence collected as part of forensic exam ("rape kit")

Save screenshots and the original of any electronic evidence in a folder on your computer that only you have access to. Place each item of potential physical evidence in its own paper bag (plastic bags can eliminate DNA) and store someplace only you can access (ie. out of common spaces, away from roommates).

Which of the following apply? (check all that apply)

☐ I have electronic evidence

☐ I have physical evidence

☐ I don't have electronic or physical evidence

☐ I'm not sure

☐ I'd rather not say

☐ Other

QUESTION 4 of 9

Nonconsensual sexual contact is never okay. Which of the following apply to your experience? (check all that apply)

Nonconsensual contact is never your fault. Consent can be given by word or action, and just because you didn't say no, doesn't mean you gave consent. You can consent to one thing without consenting to another thing, and you can withdraw consent at any time. Learn more about your school's definition of consent in Pomona Policies.

- ☐ I didn't want it
- ☐ I didn't consent
- ☐ I was asleep or unconscious
- ☐ I was intoxicated (drugs and/or alcohol) and unable to consent
- ☐ I'm not sure
- ☐ I'd rather not say

More About Reporting

Callisto allows you to send the record you created directly to your school. Your school will then contact you to follow up.

LEARN MORE ABOUT REPORTING

More About Matching

Callisto allows you to enter your perpetrators information, which will only be sent to your school if another student identifies the same perpetrator.

Report Questions

When did it happen?

[Not Answered]

“From the admin side of processing a case, if you wrote down everything that happened the night it happened, but a year later you’re ready to report it, we have that information time-stamped. That makes it more credible.”

“If you come in, between now and hearing, your memory gets changed, well, how can you possibly remember that you went left instead of right one year ago? but with Callisto, students can say, ‘Well actually I wrote it down that night and you know it because it’s been encrypted and time-stamped and I haven’t been able to change it.’

Title IX Coordinator

The thing is, you can do the same thing with a Word document. You can just save what happened in a word documents and bring that up at a later date.
